

Calvert Hall is currently seeking a Learning Specialist for the 2019-2020 school year.

Calvert Hall College High School, a Catholic and Lasallian college preparatory school in Towson, Maryland, provides a diverse community of young men with a broad and balanced human and Christian education through excellent academic and extracurricular programs that promote leadership, achievement and service within the church and community.

We are seeking a learning specialist to work with students with mild, language-based learning disabilities as well as students with weaknesses in the areas of organizational skills, time management and study strategies in a small group, resource setting. Classes may range from 1:1 to 1:5.

In addition to teaching, there is a strong preference for someone who will be involved in our extensive co-curricular program, whether in athletics or activities.

A master's degree in learning disabilities, special education, reading, speech-language pathology, or a related field is preferred. Knowledge of best practices and strong instructional and pedagogical techniques is also imperative.

Additionally, we seek someone who can:

- Process psych-ed evaluations, assess and analyze skills and create individual educational plans
- Plan and conduct remediation for each student's specific reading and writing skill deficits
- Instruct and build students' skills and strategies in organization, time management, study techniques, and self-advocacy
- Communicate well with other subject area teachers and parents
- Utilize a skill-based, rather than a content-based, approach

Calvert Hall is an equal opportunity employer, and is constantly seeking excellent candidates to fill faculty and staff positions. In each position, we seek someone who has the ability to work on a team, who is open to professional growth, and will be committed to our school's Lasallian mission.

Deadline: Resumes for this position will be accepted until April 15 although interviews may begin as resumes are received.

Qualified candidates can submit their resumé electronically to employment@calverthall.com (Word/PDF/RTF format preferred). Resumés can also be mailed to:
