

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY

Presents:

The Secondary Schools Academy:

Leadership for the Future of Catholic Education in a Rapidly Changing Environment

The Secondary Schools Academy, offered through Saint Louis University, is a national professional development program for current and aspiring presidents, heads of school and principals of Catholic secondary schools.

This blended learning leadership academy, developed in collaboration with the leading Catholic educational associations, will explore the most relevant topics and opportunities centered around the challenges facing Catholic school leaders today.

Are you a current (or aspiring) president, head of school or principal at a Catholic high school?

Connect with other Catholic school educators. Explore, discern, learn, and be inspired by nationally recognized experts in Catholic education.

- Sept 18–21, 2018: Saint Louis University, St. Louis, Mo
- Oct 2018: Online check-ins
- Nov 14, 2018: Online session
- Nov 28, 2018: Online session
- Dec 2018: Online check-ins
- Jan 9, 2019: Online session
- Jan 23, 2019: Online session
- Feb 2019: Online check-ins
- March 6, 2019: Online session
- March 20, 2019: Online session
- April 10–12, 2019: Saint Louis University, St. Louis, Mo

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

Developed in collaboration with

Edmund Rice Christian Brothers
North America

REGISTER TODAY

For more information, including a list of topics the Secondary Schools Academy will address, or to register, visit slu.edu/ssa

“The Secondary Schools Academy provides opportunities for Catholic school leaders to receive the formation, training and professional development required to meet the demands of 21st century Catholic education.”

- Dr. John T. James, Ed.D.
Associate Professor & Director
Institute for Catholic Education
Saint Louis University